TWIN FALLS DEANERY

The Twin Falls Deanery Meeting was held at Gooding, Trinity Church on all Saints Day, November first. With the celebration of the Holy Communion by Fr. Rolls of Twin Falls, assisted by Fr. Stockwell of Gooding and Meditations by the Rt. Rev. Frank A. Rhea, Bishop of Idaho, closed the morning session. Bishop Rhea spoke on importance of our thinking about life after death. We are not dead, we have communion and fellowship with God, our earthly friends are not forgotten we have communion with them.

We reconvened after a delightful luncheon having prayers by Fr. Simmons and a talk by Fr. Kitagawa on "Relocation Planning". With the reports by the guilds the religious education chairman and the district chairman Bishop Rhea closed the meeting with a summarization of the work that has been done and will be done.

The Church of the Holy Apostles is grateful to the Twin Falls Deanery for voting to give tge offering taken at the service to be used to make Christmas a little brighter for the children at the Church of the Holy Apostles.

IN THE MAILBAG

[illegible], Seattle, Washington..... Bill Huston was in the office the day the pictures came, and he spoke so happily of his association with you there; and all that your friendship means to him. I know, that you will miss him, now that he has been transferred elsewhere. He seemed all happy over his new assignment, but regretted leaving the fine friends in Idaho. Of course Bill makes friends wherever he goes, as you do also.....Marion Barclay, Ruth Adams, Gladys Canedy, Elizabeth Rhea, etc. are all just fine.

Mrs. Pat Hadiwara, Chicago, Illinois.....Our baby is healthy and well and already very fat. She weighed ten pounds nine ounces this morning - which means shes getting too heavy to pick up and fondle for any length of time. Maybe will spoil her less this way, (I hope).

Friends University, Nana Tomita.....Last Sunday, I saw Johnny(Kanno) Shozo(Komorita) and Shuzo(Kato). Mrs. Schmidt, a woman who I had met before, has a daughter who goes to Bethel. She found out that we knew each other so she arranged to have the boys come down to her house for a day. And she invited Elsie and me also. It was swell seeing them again and thank goodness they were just as crazy as they ever were. We began to have a good time right away and it kept up all day.
